Our Town August 23, 2018

"Another thing I love doing in Our Town," Jo mused, "is the Alpine Adventure Run."

The Soupster raised his eyebrows and looked through the steam rising from his mug. "Good for you!" he exclaimed. "An 8-mile run over the mountains isn't a walk in the park. The extent of my racing involves getting coffee before noon," he laughed. "How was the run?"

"Super fun! Lots of exercise, amazing scenery, and a two-hour, one-way conversation with no one to interrupt or disagree," Jo replied.

"Talking to yourself for 2 hours?" the Soupster asked.

"Well, technically, thinking to myself" Jo said. "Picture this: You arrive at the beginning of the race and find yourself surrounded by the fittest people in Our Town, suddenly wishing you'd overslept. Before you know it, the starting gun is fired, and your thoughts are racing faster than your feet..."

...Oh no! Why does it always feel like a full sprint at first? Okay, pace yourself. Look at all these people beside the road cheering us on. I wonder if I know anyone? Yep! Better pick up the pace so they won't suspect I'm actually dying -- right here in front of the grocery store.

...Okay, here we go. Start of the trail. You've got this. Tree root, mud, slippery planks -- repeat! A runner slowing ahead. 'Passing on the left! Cool tattoo!' Hmmm, someone is not a happy camper. Time for positive self-talk: 'I feel steady and grounded. I run with confidence. I am Zen.'

...I hate stairs. I hate stairs.

...Phew! The ridge at last. This sweat dripping in my eyes stings. Goodbye sunscreen. Another

runner. Should I make noise, or be stealthy? 'Whoo-hoo! Whoo-hoo! Keep your eyes peeled in case of bear!' Yep, that got his attention! I should have had that second pancake for breakfast.

...Oh WOW! Sun illuminating bright green foliage and flowers all around me: Fireweed, lupine, dogwood. And look! OH. MY. GOSH. I am in heaven. I love these clouds filling the valleys, and the snow-capped peaks poking through.

...Eyes on the trail! Concentrate. Is anyone catching me? No, don't look back. Enjoy the journey. Be grateful. Run to your own rhythm.

... Yes! Heading down. Lean forward and use gravity. Tray tables upright and locked. Good work, knees! Thank you, ibuprofen! On the road, let's sprint to the finish just around this curve. Whoops! Just around the next curve. Nope. Next curve, for sure. WHERE ON EARTH IS THE FINISH LINE??

...I hear cheering. What a crowd! Some speed now would be nice. Hello, legs? Are you two listening?

So that's how it went for two hours and one minute, Soupster!" Jo laughed.

"Well, I broke out in a sweat just listening to all that," the Soupster said. "How are you feeling today?"

"Great, other than a few aches and pains everywhere below the waist -- and the voice in my head is a little hoarse," said Jo with a smile.

"Ah, I see," the Soupster replied. "Best get a few days' rest. It'll do you both a world of good."

Announcements

Ferry Schedule Changes

AMHS announced that the M/V Malaspina, originally delayed due to tides, was further delayed due to a mechanical issue that impacted scheduled port calls for 8/14-17. Additional changes are being made to the vessel's schedule from 8/18-21 to accommodate the effects of the earlier delay. The Malaspina expects to resume the regular sailing schedule with the 8/21/18 departure from Ketchikan. The adjusted schedule for the Malaspina - and other ferry schedule updates - are available at www.FerryAlaska.com, Ad#7705b75dad

SITKA SOUP KID'S PAGE

Did you know you can harvest MORE than just field crops? In Sitka & Southeast Alaska we harvest Berries, Fish, Seaweed, & Beach Greens, as well as veggies from our gardens!

Help this boy to bring the salmon he's holding to the smokehouse in the center of the maze!

Arthur Hughes
painting
Gleaning

HARVESTING:
The process of gathering a ripe crop from the fields. Depending on the crop, this may be once a year in the fall, or at other times.

Harvesting & Gleaning

GLEANING:
Collecting from fields the food left over after the regular harvest, described in the Old Testament & seen in paintings. Also seen in a 2000 French movie made on video camera

We PRESERVE (jar, can, smoke, dry, pickle, vacuum seal & freeze) harvested foods for use later when resources aren't plentiful.

From "Fables of Aesop and others" (1863)

The importance of gathering food for the winter was shown in Aesop's fable The Ant and The Grasshopper. Color in this picture of the ant & grasshopper.
