Our Town Oct. 18, 2018 Why not? - the Soupster enjoys a good cartoon

Would you like to create an Our Town? The Sitka Soup would welcome an infusion of "new blood." You may tell your story in words (450-500 of them), or as a graphic "cartoon" strip (probably four panels the size of those above). We would even consider a short, original photo essay with B&W photos. Your Our Town must be closely connected with the life of Sitkans, and the Soupster must make an appearance, even if it's a brief one. If we run your Our Town, we'll pay you $50.

To submit: Email your creation to shop@sitkasoup.com and put "Our Town" in the Subject line. Or call: 747-7595

Richard Wein for the State House

This election is not about voting the party line. It is about what course you want to chart for both District 35 and the State. We're losing jobs. Alaska is not part of the rising national economy. We are first and last in all the wrong things. Soft legislation in a hard world is not where you want to be today. I will approach the problems we face with vigor, transparency, and intelligence.

As always, the choice is yours....

Regards,
Richard Wein for the State House.

COSTUMES

Other times when some people like to dress up are for Alaska Day and at gatherings to celebrate their heritage!

Alaska Natives wear traditional clothing called "Regalia." Regalia is NOT a considered a "costume" in the sense of a pretend outfit. Tlingit Elder Herman Davis on the left.

Costumes can be clothes of a particular country or historical period. Between Alaska Day & Halloween, October is a month for dressing up!

People wear many kinds of costumes, both at Halloween & other occasions, like re-enacting historical events or being in a play.

Find the Popular Costumes Below!

One reason to wear a costume is to feel brave & in charge, like a superhero. Another is to experience another time & place - like the 1820s or 1920s.
