Our Town 9/10/2020

Originally Published September 7, 2000

"Cross your fingers!" yelled the man on the tall ladder to his Soupster neighbor below.

The man furiously sloshed white paint from a bucket onto the wall high up near his roof, as the first clouds passed their ominous shadows over the eaves.

"Not now!" he yelled at the clouds. He made, with his paint brush, even quicker jerking motions that covered him, the ladder, the ground below - everything but the wall - with paint.

The ladder swayed precariously.

"Calm down," the Soupster yelled back. "Even if it does rain today, you'll surely have another day to paint."

"I won't," the neighbor said and scurried down the ladder to approach the Soupster.

"I went fishing so many days I could have been painting," he wailed. "I took a hike on the new Mosquito Cove trail when I could have been painting. My whole family offered to help me on several occasions. 'That's okay,' I told them. Oh, I'm a fool, a fool!"

"Don't be so hard on yourself," said the Soupster.

The neighbor turned suddenly cold and serious. "How long have you lived in Our Town?" he asked the Soupster.

"Long enough," the Soupster answered cautiously.

"Then you should know," said the neighbor, "that putting off your painting till September is madness. Madness!"

The Soupster tells a story...

The Soupster knew. He knew well that professional painters in Our Town sometimes have a waiting list years long. Not for lack of ambition, but because there are so few painting days. And the Soupster also knew that some folks in Our Town have gone to incredible lengths to deal with paint and rain.

"Let me tell you a story," said the Soupster, gently lifting his neighbor's spattered paws off his shoulders.

"A nice couple I knew was buying a house and the bank would not close the loan until the weathered western wall was repainted. The couple was paying rent until the loan closed and the monthly payments were wreaking havoc on their savings.

"But the bank insisted on the painting. This was in October, mind you. The couple begged the bank to let the job hold off until spring. They even offered to let the bank hold the painting money until then. The bank wouldn't budge."

"What did they do?" asked the neighbor.

"Well, the husband and wife painted the wall together. The wife had a bunch of towels and she would wipe off an area a second before he would slap oil paint onto it. They waited for a day when the wind wasn't blowing right on the wall and painted it in the middle of a good downpour."

"I get it," said the neighbor. "Where there's a will, there's a way. Just do it." He shook the Soupster's hand. "Thanks."

But before the Soupster could say "Pshaw," rain drops started falling. The neighbor was already running off. "Honey!" he yelled into his front door, "Get some towels!"

Marshall Albertson for Assembly

~ Make Sitka Affordable Again ~

Father of 5, with 9 grandchildren • Alaskan since 1999 • Region NRA chairman
Opened own tree trimming business in late 90s • Owner of 3 local businesses;
Munchie Mart, Guns of Alaska & Absolute Tree Care

I am running for Assembly because I believe that Sitka has a lack of balance & that not all voices are being heard. I want to be the voice for the silent majority. Businesses are suffering. With unexpected obstacles related to Covid-19, we must find a way to meet in the middle. We need to try to keep everything going so our town can survive. Let's make Sitka a place where our youth are willing to stay, where a graduate can get a job, where housing is affordable & available. I would truly like to make these things happen - I already have ideas. If elected I will show you that I can make real change in our community.

Vote Steve Lee for Assembly ~ October 6

We are a community at a crossroads.

Increasingly, young, working class families are leaving Sitka. We must become a city that allows new & small businesses to be successful. If elected, I plan to lead the charge through a collaborative effort with our residents. Collaboration is more important than ever - we must ensure that all Sitkans have a voice at the table. We must repair the disconnect between Sitka's leadership and the community. I want to ensure that the Assembly is accountable and transparent.

Sitka has seen a rise in drug abuse and homelessness. We must address these issues with compassion and work with existing organizations, to find ways to expand local treatment options and support local efforts for a men's shelter. I'm Steve Lee, and with your vote, let's do this together!

Marie Curie was a courageous scientist who studied radioactive elements. Her efforts with her husband Pierre led to the 1898 discovery of polonium and radium, and she championed the development of X-rays.

"Radioactive"

In the 2019 film "Radioactive" Curie is portrayed by actress Rosamund Pike.

Curie was the first person, and only woman to be awarded a Nobel Prize twice.

In order to extract and isolate the radioactive elements, Marie often spent entire days stirring boiling cauldrons of uranium-rich pitchblende. Image from "Radioactive".

Match the radioactive elements below with their abbreviations

- | | |
|-------------|----|
| Actinium | Am |
| Thorium | U |
| Uranium | Np |
| Neptunium | Pu |
| Plutonium | Ac |
| Americium | Cf |
| Californium | Es |
| Einsteinium | Th |
| Fermium | Fm |

Circle the 2 radioactive elements discovered by Marie & Pierre Curie.
