OUR TOWN

The Soupster learns of a bizarre theory.

"That you, Fran?" said the Soupster, squinting into the sun as a figure ran towards him.

"Yep, Soupster," Fran replied. "Good to see you! Enjoying this amazing day?" she asked.

"Sure am!" the Soupster said, as he stood up slowly, hands on his lower back as if to pack the discs back in. "Making the most of the weather before it turns on us. Already the leaves are falling," he moaned. "Wait, wait, though - there's something different about you, Fran...can't quite put my finger on it..."

"Oh, yeah" Fran said, nonchalant. "Probably the effects of my Reverse Training Program," she declared.

"Your what?"

"Let's just say I've been extra goal-directed lately. Reverse training," Fran said.

"So, what's that about?" he asked.

"Well," said Fran, "it all began a couple of weeks ago, on one of those rare blue days. So much blue that the only thing separating sea and sky was rocky islands and white surf. I was running in the 4K mountain race and didn't even stop to admire the view. As my feet found their way up the trail, I was struck by how good I felt. And the whole race went like this. Until the end when I crossed the finish line and asked for my time."

"And?" the Soupster prompted.

"Not good. I'd lost 15 minutes from last year," she lamented, "which was 10 minutes slower than the one before that."

"So that explains your false sense of awesomeness?" the Soupster chuckled.

"Eeeexactly," Fran said. "You go slow enough, and anything can feel easy. That's when I decided to take action and launch my Reverse Training Program. Basically, that means adjusting your training for an earlier time. Because you are training for an event that has already occurred, your expectations can be more modest," she said, illogically.

"I see, I guess," the Soupster said. "Just because we can't turn back time doesn't mean we can't cover our tracks -- or at least tidy them up. I've had similar thoughts. The other day, I saw myself in the library window, looking like a tree leaning a bit too far with the wind. I went in, checked out a book on backs and decided I've been walking the wrong way! Who'd have thought there was so much to something we've been doing since age one?"

"Are you sure you haven't just been ducking to keep the rain out of your face?"

"Maybe," Soupster replied. "Anyway, I'm gliding now, picturing myself as a Tanzanian, maybe, carrying water on top of my head. Straight spine, shoulder blades back, chin tucked. It's a lot to think about. I'm surprised I can get anything else done at the same time! But it helps with my vertigo, too."

"Well, good luck with that," said Fran.

"And, if I ever do carry a pail of water on my head, I won't need to fill it at a well," the Soupster said. "I'll just walk around Our Town on a rainy day."

"And I'll be out there too, shaving minutes off my time in a race that I've already run!" Fran laughed.

"Happy reverse training!" the Soupster called out, as Fran turned and began jogging backwards down the path.

Kevin Mosher for Assembly

Hello! My name is Kevin Mosher. I have lived in Sitka most of my adult life and am married with 5 adult children. I have a B.A. in Business Administration and have worked in the accounting field for the past 15+ years; including 10 years with my current employer, Shee Atika Inc. I am running for re-election to the Assembly and would appreciate your vote on October 5th!

If you trust me with your vote, I will:

Be a strong voice for sound fiscal management of City resources.

Help Sitka businesses by supporting efforts to build a marine haul-out; promoting responsible, year-around visiting; working to address barriers to new housing development.

Continue to foster a family-friendly town by supporting the K-12 school system.

Be a positive voice for community, by seeking out and hearing the concerns of all Sitkans; finding opportunities to enhance the City's Government-to-Government relationship with STA; and looking for ways to reduce our local contribution to climate change with win-win solutions that benefit both economy & environment.

I want to live in a community where we treat each other with respect and compassion regardless of our differences and I will model that behavior as a member of your Assembly. Thank you for your consideration! facebook.com/kevinmosher99835/

DID YOU KNOW

That 2021 is the 75th anniversary of the publication of John Hersey's book Hiroshima?

In August 1945, the U. S. military dropped nuclear weapons over the cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, leading to the surrender of Japanese forces and the end of World War II. This was the first time in history that nuclear weapons had been used in conflict. While Americans celebrated the end of the war, the U. S. government went to work minimizing the true human cost. Photos of mushroom clouds and headlines about the war's end became the American media narrative, while international journalists' reports of devastation were silenced or dismissed as Japanese propaganda.

In May of 1946, American journalist John Hersey traveled to Hiroshima and spent two weeks reporting on the human effects of the bombs from the perspective of six survivors. They spoke about the death they saw and the suffering of those who survived. When his book-length article was published in The New Yorker (Aug. 31, 1946) it was the first time the American public was exposed to a candid report about the bombs.

Hersey's Hiroshima has since been celebrated as a masterpiece of journalism, inspired generations of anti-war activists, and been hailed as one of the most important documents in the ongoing debate about nuclear war.

Aleutian Coral Gardens

Bamboo Coral & Crabs

Not all coral is tropical! In July 2002, tracts of coral gardens were discovered off the Aleutian Islands. 100 species of coral flourish at 300 to 5,000 feet below the surface.

Multiple species of deep-sea corals form an underwater garden 540 ft below the ocean's surface off the coast of the Aleutians.

The term coral "garden" was coined by marine ecologist Bob Stone, because Aleutian corals grow out of a rock reef instead of a coral reef.

Unlike shallow-water corals, deep-sea corals don't need sunlight!

White Primnoid Coral

Aleutian corals grow slowly due to the colder habitat.

Paragorgia Colonies

Alaskan corals live for hundreds or even thousands of years, growing & reproducing very slowly.
