Our Town Nov. 15, 2012

Our Town resident Chauncey Whelan was riding his bicycle down Lake Street when he happened to glance over and saw a large dog chasing the ducks at the lake. "For Heaven's sake," he thought. "I need to go over there and break that up."

Being a good citizen, Chauncey stopped, got off his bike and started to walk towards the commotion. The dog saw him and suddenly turned its attention away from the ducks, growled and glared at Chauncey with a look that made the young man tremble.

The ducks, in the meantime, had apparently forgotten about the dog and had wandered over to Edith Goodrich who was throwing leftover bread on the ground nearby for them. "Thanks for distracting that dog, Chauncey! You're doing a great job!" Edith shouted.

"You're welcome, Mrs. Goodrich," Chauncey said, trying not to make any sudden movements that might escalate his precarious situation.

A group of people soon appeared and Chauncey breathed a sigh of relief, but they didn't seem to notice what was happening and walked past him on their way to the wooden pier. They stood there, looking at the lake and talking among themselves for a few minutes, then turned and headed back to the street. "Pardon me," Chauncey said politely, "Would you mind helping me with this dog?"

One member of the group smiled at him and said, "We have this area reserved for our fundraising event this morning. You're welcome to come, but we'd appreciate it if you left your dog in your car."

"But it's not my……" Chauncey's words trailed off as the group walked away. "It's not my dog. It's…..it's…George Clooney's dog."

Just then, one of the women in the group wheeled around and shrieked, "Are you serious? That's George Clooney's dog? Is he in town? Oh, my God!"

The whole group was excited by that time and rushed back to Chauncey, ignoring the dog, whose demeanor had magically improved with the arrival of more humans. "Why, yes", Chauncey went on. "I heard that Mr. Clooney is in town on his yacht and that he's been desperately looking for his dog because it ran away this morning."

"I just love George Clooney," one of the women sighed. "And he has such an awareness of pressing social issues." The others in the group nodded in agreement.

"So," Chauncey said, "You know that he's also a big supporter of….what is your group called?"

"Society for Bluer Lakes," one of the other women replied.

"Yes, he's a big proponent of bluer lakes," Chauncey explained. "I hear he's quite a contributor. Maybe he would even agree to be your spokesman!"

"That would be awesome!" they all agreed.

So, off the group went with the dog, giving Chauncey an opportunity to walk back to his bike.

The Soupster had come out of the dentist's office across the street about the same time this was happening and observed the conversation between Chauncey and the group. "Well, young man," he said, "looks like they just couldn't see the forest for the trees."

AMSEA will offer a 10-hour fishing vessel safety and drill conductor course in Sitka on the following dates: Nov 20, Dec 8 and Jan 16 at NSRAA. This course meets the training requirements for commercial fishing vessels. Participants practice hands-on in the water and on a vessel, with emergency equipment that should be onboard any commercial fishing or other sizeable vessel — PFDs, life rafts, immersion suits, EPIRBs, fire extinguishers, and practice emergency procedures like man overboard, abandon ship, fire fighting and flooding control. AMSEA will also be offering its Upright & Watertight: Stability Awareness & Damage Control course on the following dates: Dec 9 and Jan 17 at NSRAA. FREE to commercial fishermen thanks to the Nat'l Institute of Occupational Safety & Health, USCG and AMSEA memberships. Those interested in additional information should contact 747-3287 or visit www.amsea.org. Ad#93906

Data Portals and Mapping Applications for Alaska Webinar Where might one find real-time information on weather and ocean conditions, download satellite imagery, or find data useful for spill response in Alaska? The public is invited to attend the free webinar "Data at your fingertips -- a tour of three data portals and mapping applications for Alaska" at UAS, Rm 215, Tues, Nov 13 from 6:30–7:30 pm. The webinar is hosted by UAF Cooperative Extension Service Sitka office, in conjunction with Alaska Center for Climate Assessment and Policy (ACCAP). A brief, moderated discussion on climate change in Alaska will follow the demos of each data portal. For more information contact CES at 747-9440. Ad#36838

PIES

When you talk about pies, most people think of fruits pies like apple pie or cherry pie • But people used to eat more pies that were filled with meat and vegetables • A survey said that apple pie is the most popular pie in America today • Also, when asked what dessert Americans would prefer for a guest to bring to a holiday dinner -- pie, cake or cookies-- pie took the top spot!
