Our Town Nov. 6, 2014

The Soupster hears about charlatans, wrongly accused

The Soupster stepped out of the rain and into the lobby of Our Town's airport to pick up an express shipment. He hoped that someday the animal heads and fish lined up along the front beam could be made animatronic, like something out of Disneyland. Visitors would take it as noteworthy, the Soupster surmised, if a 70-lb. king salmon winked at them and said, "Welcome to Our Town!" or "Please come visit Our Town again."

The gangway swung open and passengers spilled out. The serious travelers flowed right out the front door, having whittled their fashion and toiletry needs down to carry-on size. The rest of the crowd oozed slowly toward the luggage carousel. At the front counter, the Soupster was told he could retrieve his package in a few minutes.

"Hi, Soupster!" said Skye Claire, sideling up next to him. Skye was a professional entertainer who holed up in Our Town periodically to hide from her adoring fans. "How's my favorite purveyor of miscellaneous items soaked in rainwater?"

"And my best wishes to you, Miss Skye," the Soupster said with a barely perceptible bow. "What's new in the entertainment business?"

"I met a talking dog," said Skye.

"I'm listening," said the Soupster.

"So, I'm in the office of a talent agent in Seattle who's trying out new acts for the annual Rainier Review," she recounted. "I'm standing by the door filling out some contract forms, when the agent lets in the next act for an audition.

"'Spartacus, the Wonder Dog!' trumpets the owner of a speckled black-and-white, long-haired medium size hound. 'Spartacus will now answer three questions.'"

"What was the owner like?" asked the Soupster

"A bit forgettable," said Skye. "Plus, me and the talent agent are busy staring at the dog.

"'Spartacus,' says the owner. 'What do you call the material on the outside of a tree?'

"'Bark!' yelps the dog enthusiastically. The talent agent raises his eyebrows.

"'Spartacus,' says the owner. 'Name a three-master wooden cargo ship from the 19th century.'

"'Barque,' yips Spartacus. The agent crosses his arms and looks stern.

"'Spartacus,' the owner says a third time. 'What is the best brand of root beer?'

"'Barq's' Spartacus says.

"'That's enough, you charlatans!' says the talent agent, who comes out from behind his desk and scoots both man and dog out of the office. I slip out with them. The agent goes back inside and slams his door.

"Spartacus looks up at his owner. 'Henry Weinhard?' Spartacus says. I almost fainted."

Like to write an Our Town? It must be 450-500 words long & closely connected with the life of Sitkans. The Soupster must make an appearance in the story – even minor. If we run your story, we will pay $50. To submit: Email the story to: shop@sitkasoup.com and put "Our Town" in the Subject line. Or call 747-7595.

Mural Design Workshop. Collaborate on a community mural design with contemporary folk artist Cara Jane Murray. Fri, Dec. 5th. Contact Sarah at 738-5234 or justsosarah@gmail.com to sign up. The com-pleted design will be painted by the community at the Sitka Artisan's Market on Dec. 6th. Brought to you by the Greater Sitka Arts Council or the Greater Sitka Legacy Fund. Ad#607545

Opportunity for artists to explore the concepts of personal and community wellness "What does wellness mean to you? The Greater Sitka Arts Council and the Sitka Health Summit invite artists of all disciplines to create a donation piece inspired by the concepts of personal and community wellness. This unique opportunity will launch with your work placed in a local business for one week for viewing, and will culminate with a silent auction with artists setting the minimum bid. Funds raised will benefit the Arts Council, the Health Summit, and the artists themselves. The auction will be part of the Arti-Gras celebration in March 2015. Donations will be accepted through Feb. 1. For more information, contact Sarah Lawrie at 738-5234 or Melissa Marconi Wentzel at 738-0462. Ad#101543

10th Annual Fair Trade Fair. St. Peter's by the Sea. Nov. 15 from 10am to 2pm. Our Fair Trade Fair each year and our Gift Counter provide outlets for people's arts and crafts from around the world (through the organization, A Greater Gift). As an example, here is a list of the activities and donations of the Outreach Committee in 2006: Bishop's Tea House took in almost $1000. Fair Trade Fair in October raised $3,184.71 ECW Christmas Bazaar earned $367.25. Donations given more recently: Young Life $200 Sitka's Faith in Action $600 Alaska Correctional Ministries $500 Florence Prison Christmas Trip $500 Hansen House $200 Tanzanian Orphanage $1,000 Priest's Discretionary Fund $500. Through generous donations on the first Sunday of each month, the Salvation Army was given $1,423 for emergency housing. St. Peter's also contributed generously to their food pantry. The sales made of Fair Trade items by the Outreach Committee helped many villagers worldwide by providing a market for their arts and crafts. The Outreach Committee is hoping to extend this opportunity to Alaskans in the coming year. Ad#275545

Sharing the road safely with child pedestrians: All drivers need to recognize the special safety needs of pedestrians, especially those that are children. Young, elderly, disabled and intoxicated pedestrians are the most frequent victims in auto-pedestrian collisions. Generally, pedestrians have the right-of-way at all intersections; however, regardless of the rules of the road or right-of-way, you as a driver are obligated to exercise great care and extreme caution to avoid striking pedestrians. Drivers should not block the crosswalk when stopped at a red light or waiting to make a turn. Do not stop with a portion of your vehicle over the crosswalk. Blocking the crosswalk forces pedestrians to go around your vehicle and puts them in a dangerous situation. In a school zone when a warning flasher or flashers are blinking, you must stop to yield the right-of-way to a pedestrian crossing the roadway within a marked crosswalk or at an intersection with no marked crosswalk. Always stop when directed to do so by a school patrol sign, school patrol officer or designated crossing guard. Don't honk your horn, rev your engine or do anything to rush or scare a pedestrian in front of your car, even if you have the legal right-of-way. Children are the least predictable pedestrians and the most difficult to see. Take extra care to look out for children not only in school zones, but also in residential areas, playgrounds and parks. able health insurance for 2015. Open enrollment in the Health Insurance Marketplace begins Nov 15. Those that have already signed up for insurance through the Marketplace will have through Dec 15 to make changes to their coverage. There may be additional plans available and different prices, so it is recommended that even those satisfied with their current plan browse through the options. Changes to current plans will go into effect Jan 1, 2015. Additionally, those already insured through the Marketplace are being required to change their password on the Healthcare.gov website for security reasons. For those that have not yet signed up for health insurance, the open enrollment period is Nov 15, through Feb 15, 2015. It is recommended that those that wish to enroll set up an account now in preparation for the influx of individuals that are likely to enroll during that period. Familiarizing yourself with the available plans is also encouraged. To set up an account, you may visit www.healthcare.gov, call the Marketplace toll-free number, 1-800-318-2596, United Way at 211, or SEARHC at 966-8883. Anyone that did not have health insurance in place during the 2014 calendar year will be required to pay a tax penalty on 2014 tax filings. That penalty may be as low as $95 per adult, half that for children, or 1% of your income, whichever is higher. Those that do not have health insurance in 2015 will face penalties when filing taxes in 2016. For more information, please call Andrea Thomas at (907) 966-8883 or email her at andreat@searhc.org. Eleventh (and final) Weekly Blue Lake Generation Outage Update The generation outage is over! The outage ended on Fri Oct 24, when Blue Lake Powerhouse turbine number 5 was brought online for 12 hrs.The water tunnel will be dewatered for inspection and if the inspection goes well, the new Blue Lake Powerhouse will be online for good. The power supply status will remain yellow for just a few more days. Testing of the Blue Lake water treatment plant will happen this week so Sitka will continue to get drinking water from the Indian River filtration plant until testing goes well. For more information please visit www.facebook.com/cityofsitka or www.bluelakeexpansion.com.

CAMEL RACE!

BABY CAMEL: TOO CUTE OR WAY TOO CUTE?

Camels may have one or two humps which they use to store fat • Camels can go a month or more without drinking • One-humped camels are also called dromedaries • Two-humped camels are called Bactrian camels • Dromedaries live in the Middle East and North Africa • Bactrian camels live in the Gobi dessert of China and Mongolia. Camels can carry 200 lbs. in very hot weather. They can run as fast as horses!
