Our Town
December 18, 2014

Marty the Tide Pool
Sung to the tune of "Frosty The Snowman"

Marty the Tide Pool
Was a horizontal guy
With a mussel nose and a kelpish smile
And a gumboot for an eye

Marty the Tide Pool
For whom life was never dull
With a sea star, snail and a barnacle
Being scarfed by a white gull

There must have been some hefty
In the rock that big kid found
He threw it into Marty
Who began to swirl around

Marty the Tide Pool
Had to hurry on his way
In the sea he'll ride
Till the next low tide
And be back in half a day

Wet Christmas
Sung to the tune of "White Christmas"

I'm dreaming of a wet Christmas
It's a good downpour that I love
For precipitation's
My acclimation
The rain fits me like a glove

I'm dreaming of a damp Christmas
The kind of Yule I long to get
May your hair be droopy and wet
Cause there's nowhere quite like home, you bet!

Herring Roe on Boughs of Hemlock
Sung to the tune of "Deck The Halls"

Herring roe on boughs of hemlock
Fa la la la la, la la la la
People think these little fish rock
Fa la la la la, la la la la

Boil in water, pour some seal grease
Fa la la, fa la la, la la la
For this dish we say "Gun-al-cheesh"
Fa la la la la, la la la la

Are you interested in viewing, identifying and learning about Sitka's winter bird residents, or do you need a refresher before participating in the Christmas Bird Count? If so, you are in luck! People of all ages and levels of bird watching experience are invited to participate in free winter bird walks at Sitka National Historical Park on Dec 27 from 10–11:30am. Interested parties should dress warmly and be prepared to spend an hour and a half outside in variable weather conditions. For more information contact Ryan at 747-0121 or at ryan_p_carpenter@nps.gov. Ad#831548

I have to leave Sitka and cannot take my kitties with me. I should like to advertise something like "Two cats need a home! My little boys (brothers, ~10 years old, neutered & declawed in front) have been in Sitka 5 years but now I have to leave and can't take them with me. No health issues, Vet. Care & shots up to date, shy but love warm laps & long naps. Max & Spike don't like other cats but get along well with dogs. I'm in town until Dec. 16th, if you'd like to meet them call 957-6738 or drop by 214-B Brady St. Ad#891546

The December Artifacts of the Month at the Sheldon Jackson Museum are five small, carved wooden animals (in the shape of a wolf, a pig, a fox, and two birds. Charming and simple, yet artistically rendered, the miniature carved animals may have been made for sale for the souvenir trade or for children to play and learn with. A variety of such carvings are in the collection of the Sheldon Jackson Museum and they, along with these figures, may be seen in the museum gallery through Dec 31. Winter hours at the Sheldon Jackson Museum are 10am to 4pm, Tues-Sat. Closed holidays. General admission is $3 and free for those 18 and under or members of either the Friends of the Museum or Friends of the Alaska State Museum. Ad#645548

SouthEast Alaska Regional Health Consortium (SEARHC) would like to remind people of the importance of getting their flu shot. Flu season typically peaks between December and February but significant activity can occur as late as May. Flu vaccines are offered in many locations such as, SEARHC clinics, doctor's offices, health departments, pharmacies and college health centers. Ad#949548

Addiction is a family disease. It affects the relationships of those close to the addict: parents, spouses, siblings, children, and friends. If someone's addiction is affecting you, first you must help yourself. Nar-Anon is a 12-step support group for families and friends of addicts. There are no dues or fees to join. The Sitka Nar-Anon Group meet Tues eves at 6:30 pm upstairs in the Lutheran Church. For info email snag99835@outlook.com Ad#781546

ANB Founders Hall. The social hour starts at 1pm and dinner will be served at 2pm. ANS is sponsoring this year's dinner. If you are an organization that would like to be a sponsor, donate turkeys, bake turkeys, or volunteer, there will be a meeting Thurs, Dec 18 please call Debe Brincefield, Chairperson of this year's dinner at 738-4323. Everyone is encouraged to come out and help keep our Community Dinner a Sitka Tradition. Many thanks Sitka! Ad# 368548

Sitka Chamber of Commerce Event -- It's time to get out the lights and create a holiday wonderland! The 2014 Annual Holiday Lights Contest is coming up soon! On Mon, Dec 22, this year's judges will be out looking for the best of the best! Nominate your own creation, or elect your neighbor's, but be sure to let us know so that we don't miss you! Nomination forms can be found at the Chamber office at 329 Harbor Dr Suite 212 or on sitkachamber.com. Ad#610548

This Christmas, instead of going on-line or out of town to do your shopping, make a commitment to shop local. Sitka's local businessmen and women do a tremendous amount for our community. It is these people who support our children's sports and activities, our churches, our non-profits and so much more! When we shop local, we help Sitka's businesses to provide jobs for our neighbors and friends. When we shop local, we help to fund city services such as road maintenance and funding for our schools through sales tax dollars. When we shop local, we are investing in the character and prosperity of Sitka. Sitka's businesses are stocked up and ready with a wide variety of gifts for you to choose from. Take a look! You just might be surprised at what you can find! From the Chamber of Commerce. Ad#45548a

Sitka Fire Department Holiday Safety Tips: Holiday Decorating - Keep lit candles away from decorations and other things that burn. - Blow out lit candles when leaving a room. - Turn off all light strings and decorations before leaving home or going to bed. - Some lights are only for indoor and outdoor use, but not both. - Replace any strings of lights with worn or broken cords or loose connections. - Use clips, not nails, to hang lights so the cords do not get damaged. Holiday Entertaining - Keep children and pets away from lit candles. - Keep matches and lighters up in a high closet. - Stay in the kitchen when cooking on the stovetop. - Make sure that smoke detectors are properly placed and have current batteries. - Wear seat belts when traveling. Don't drive under the influence. - Use caution with turkey fryers. Holiday Fire Facts - Two of every five home decoration fires are started by candles. - Nearly half of holiday decoration fires happen because decorations are placed too close to a heat source. Any questions on holiday safety tips please contact Sitka Fire Depart. 747-3233. Thank you for your support. Ad#430548

We have a present that will change your future.

Invest in yourself:

- A 2-year degree is worth $488,000 more than a high school diploma.
- A Bachelor's degree is worth $1.1 Million
- Over half of Alaska jobs require some college education.
- Education makes people happier, healthier, and live longer.

The best present you can give yourself is an education.

Do you want to garden in Sitka, but need to know the basics? The Sitka Local Foods Network education committee will kick off its 2015 schedule of classes with two free classes — Vegetable Gardening 101 and Choosing What Vegetables To Grow In Sitka. Vegetable Gardening 101 is a beginner's gardening class taught by Michelle Putz and Linda Wilson. The class is from 6:30-8:30 p.m. Tues, Jan. 27, at Harrigan Hall. Participants will learn everything they need to start an easy-to-grow vegetable garden in Sitka. Choosing What Vegetables To Grow In Sitka is a beginner's class taught by Lisa Sadleir-Hart and Maybelle Filler. It takes place from 6:30-8:30 p.m. on Tues, Feb. 3, at Harrigan Centennial Hall. In this class, which is for new gardeners and new-to-Sitka gardeners, participants will learn which vegetables grow well in Sitka, and which vegetables can be a struggle. The classes will kick off a year-long series on a variety of topics related to vegetable gardening in Sitka. In addition, our garden mentor program classes also will be open to the public. For more information, contact Michelle at 747-2708. Ad#719548

Happy Holidays!

The holiday's are all about family. At SMC, Sitka is our family and has been for more than 30 years.

This holiday season, we're proud of our service to the community and thankful for allowing our family to take care of yours.

SITKA MEDICAL CENTER

The RIDE seeks community input to improve public transit in Sitka Help the RIDE provide better public transit and paratransit services in Sitka. Please complete a short survey about why you do or don't catch the RIDE to get where you're going. We are in the process of updating the five-year Sitka Public Transit-Human Services Transportation Plan, and our survey will help us learn where we need to improve service. You can go online to complete the survey online at surveymonkey.com/s/TheRIDE, or you can find survey on the buses, at Center For Community, STA main office (upstairs), or Swan Lake Senior Center.
