I Heard Grandma Dissing Grand Papa

Sung to the tune of "I Saw Mommy Kissing Santa Claus"

I heard Grandma dissing Grand Papa
Underneath the deer hung on the porch.

She said "We've got a ton
Of frozen venison,"
And, pushing off a hanging hoof,
Said, "This is your last one."

But Gramps, he smiled and stroked his snowy beard,
Then told my old Granny, "It's all right."

For it turned out that that old geezer
Had ordered a brand new freezer,
And he went back out again that night.

PFD is Coming to Town

Sung to "Santa Claus is Coming to Town"

We're getting four checks,
No pennies to pinch.
Now's not the time
to act like The Grinch.
PFD is coming to town.

We're takin' a trip --
Four checks should suffice.
How far do we go?
Up to the crude price.
PFD is coming to town.

You'll get one if you're naughty,
You'll get one if you're great,
You'll get one if you breathe the air,
But not if you leave the state.

You better not lie
Or make a false claim.
You don't wanna get left out in the rain.
PFD is coming to town.

Kooky Drook

Sung to the tune of "Jingle Bells"

Tuck your pants
In your boots
And dance like a drook.

Oh what fun
It is to see
A friend turned to a kook.

Cossack cap,
Floppy sleeves,
Perfect Czarist look.

All to let
The tourists have
A look at a kooky drook.

Sheldon Jackson Museum's December Artifacts of the Month are eight 19th century Northwest Coast silver spoons. Half of the spoons were generously donated by the late former curator and Friends of Sheldon Jackson Museum board member, Peter Corey. These fine examples of Alaska souvenir spoons speak to the insatiable passion and enthusiasm for collecting prevalent among many American Victorian era households and Native silversmiths' significant contributions to the flatware curio trade The December Artifacts of the Month will be exhibited until December 31st

Children & Youth

The Sitka Youth Leadership Committee (SYLC) is excited to announce the launch of its "I AM" CAMPAIGN! This social-media-based campaign promotes respect, celebrates diversity, and connects youth across Alaska. It encourages young Alaskans to embrace their strengths, be proud of their unique qualities, and challenge stereotypes. As part of the "I AM" CAMPAIGN, SYLC created a video where members talk about their personal experiences of "being put in a box" and challenge others to call out stereotypes. Look for posters, a movie theater ad, and radio PSAs as part of this campaign! Join us and post your photo with a positive adjective using the #respect challenge on Facebook, Twitter, or Instagram. Follow @SYLCLeaders. Help us reach our goal of 500 posts and 2000 likes. SYLC is a youth group dedicated to promoting respect and building bridges among youth in Sitka and across Alaska and is one of SAFV's prevention programs. SYLC believes that recognizing and celebrating differences strengthens community, helps build self-esteem, and respect for others. For more information, go to SYLC's website, Facebooks, and Instagram. Share the SYLC video, take the challenge, nominate friends, and spread the word! Ad#434566 hol at parties and events. So it comes as no surprise that there's a spike in drunk driving arrests and crashes each December. In an effort to deter drinking and driving and help keep families safe this holiday season, our Sitka Police Department will be providing increased DUI patrols throughout the month of December. The Sitka Police Department wants to encourage partygoers to celebrate responsibly. We hope drivers make the right decision before heading to their holiday parties this year and find a sober driver or an alternate way home." Please don't drink and drive. Ad#244566

Alaska Native Brotherhood Camp #1 and the Alaska Native Sisterhood Camp #4 and made possible by generous donations, the menu will be turkey and ham with all the trimmings. Word has it that Santa will be stopping by with gifts for the children that attend. Join us as we celebrate our community and this joyous holiday! Ad#583566

You are invited to not only join the fun at the annual Community Christmas Dinner but to take the opportunity to be of service as well. The Alaska Native Brotherhood Camp #1 and the Alaska Native Sisterhood Camp #4 are joyously hosting the free Community Dinner on Christmas at 2:00 p.m. at the ANB Founders' Hall. We invite community members, church and youth groups and your family to volunteer and hour or more to pitch in. Volunteers can just show up and we'll match them with one the many tasks. More ambitious folks can volunteer to bake a pie or roast one of the 20 turkeys we'll be serving (we'll provide you with the turkey). Tasks include staffing the beverage and dessert tables, serving meals, helping Santa with the many presents he'll be giving kids in attendance and cleaning up. (Volunteers are welcomed to eat before we open the doors at 1:00.) Join us in the spirit of the season. We'd love to hear from you; you can call ANB Coordinator Kerry MacLane at 752-0654 or ANS Coordinator Joy Wood at 752-0845. Have a wonderful Holiday! Ad#593566

Kettleson Memorial Library, Sitka's public library, is preparing our return to our newly expanded and remodeled space. The move is expected to take place during January, and we welcome assistance from our fellow Sitkans. If you are interested in helping with this large, exciting undertaking, please contact us at (907) 747-8708 or robb.farmer@cityofistka.org to be placed on the Volunteer List. We will then let you know further move dates and information as it becomes available. Happy Holidays. Ad#547566 seeking a spring semester host family (or single adult) for our German exchange student, who is studying and working at the university this year. Alex is a 20-year old male student from Dillingen, Bavaria here to study and gain work experience in IT. He has been in Sitka since August and is enjoying his time here, eager to find a American host family with whom to share in an inter-cultural home experience. Alex is quiet, clean, and a non-smoker with no allergies. Hosts provide a private bedroom and the equivalent of two meals per day. A $225 monthly stipend to the host is available. Alex is responsible for his own transportation and additional expenses. Anyone interested in learning more about Alex and his exchange program who is able to host Alex for 3-6 months between January and June, 2016, can contact Chris Washko, UAS Student Success Manager, at 747-7703 or cmwashko@uas.alaska.edu. SLEDS

LUGE - WOULD YOU DO THIS?

THE HORSE KNOWS THE WAY TO CARRY THE SLEIGH

ALASKAN DOG SLED

Sleds move by sliding on a smooth bottom surface and help people travel easily over snow or ice • Before the invention of the wheel, people pulled heavy loads on dry land on big sleds, called sledges. Sleighs pulled by horses carried both cargo and passengers in early America • Alaskan dog sleds have become world famous because of the Iditarod and the stories of Jack London. Both bobsled and luge racing are Olympic sports. Both can top 90 miles per hour in a race!
